SCHEDULE 'B'

144 JOHN STREET EAST

Description of Property

The property is located on a corner lot, where John Street East intersects with Charlotte Street; the property generally follows an L-shaped plan. The property has vehicle access from John Street East marked by large red brick pillars that frame the entrance. There are multiple built structures associated with the property including: the main residential building (Devonian House or Sheet House) built in 1922, and the Coach House which was built c. 1860s. There are many mature trees on the property which represent a variety of species.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property known as 144 John Street East has cultural heritage value or interest for its design and physical values, its historic/associative values and its contextual values.

The property has physical/design value for its 1920s, two and one-half storey main residence, known as the Sheet House or the Devonian House, which is a representative example of Colonial Revival House which was built and used as a summer home from c. 1920-1980. The property's c.1860 coach house is a unique local example of a coach house with Gothic Revival details and the concrete, brick and stone wall located along John Street East and Charlotte Street is a rare local example of a surviving estate wall that delineated a local estate boundary.

The property has historical/associative value for its direct associations with Hon. Peter Russel and William Dickson who were early owners of the property. The property is also directly associated with George Rand I who purchased the property in 1919. The property is most associated with Evelyn Rand and Henry Sheets, who built the existing house and used the property as a summer home until 1980. Evelyn Rand was a noted equestrian. In addition, the property was associated with the Devonian Group (now part of the Devonian Group of Charitable Foundations) and The Niagara Institute (now part of the Conference Board of Canada) which used the property for conference, seminars and as a place of teaching. Parts of the surviving landscape reflects the work and design of Howard and Lorrie A. Dunington-Grubb. The couple were pioneers in their field and well respected in the Canadian landscape architecture community.

The property has contextual value as it is important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area. The large concrete, brick and stone walls that surround the property are important in defining the character of the John Street/Charlotte Street area. It also is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings. The property was originally part of the larger estate known as Randwood, which was owned by the Rand family from 1919 until 1980. It forms part of a larger significant cultural heritage landscape that includes all the grounds of the original estate. The property is visually and historically linked to the surrounding properties. Lastly, the property is a local landmark.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The cultural heritage value or interest associated with the property is represented in the following heritage attributes:

The property (as a whole):

- The concrete and stone wall which extends along John Street East and Charlotte Street
- The red brick pillars which mark the entrance to the property;
- The mature trees and plantings and boxwood hedge; and
- The surviving elements of the Dunington-Grubb landscape.

The Devonian House or Sheets House:

- The two and a half storey frame building;
- The gable roof and three attic dormers; and
- The two-storey open porch supported by wooden paired square post.

The Coach House:

- One and half storey massing;
- The steep gable roof with decorative bargeboard trim; and
- The early windows on the ground floor north elevation and the first and second floor east elevation and south elevations.

SCHEDULE 'B'

176 JOHN STREET EAST

Description of Property

The property is located on John Street East and generally follows a rectangular property line. The property is accessed from John Street East through large red brick pillars and the gate which frame the entrance. There are multiple structures associated with the property including the main residence (Randwood), a wooden gazebo, and a modern brick pavilion. There are numerous landscaping features of note including the wooden and stone foot bridges, stone pathways, water fountain and landscaping features.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property known as 176 John Street East has cultural heritage value or interest for its design and physical values, its historical/associative values, and its contextual values.

It has physical/design value because of its main residence which is a representative example of an evolved summer residence that has evidence of multiple architectural styles, such as Second Empire style, Italianate and Neo-Classical features. It also has physical/design value for its concrete, brick and stone wall found along John Street East which is a rare local example of an intact large wall which delineates the original estate boundary.

The property has historical/associative values due to its many historical associations. The property has direct associations with Hon. Peter Russel and William Dickson who were early owners of the property. It also has direct associations with the Rand Family who originally kept the property as a summer home. George Rand I purchased the property in 1910 and began modifying the existing residence and building many new structures on the estate grounds. The property remained in the Rand Family until 1976. In addition, the property is associated with the Devonian Group (now part of the Devonian Group of Charitable Foundations) and The Niagara Institute (now part of the Conference Board of Canada) which used the property for conference, seminars and as a place of teaching. The Niagara Institute was established by Calvin Rand in 1971 and they used the property from 1980 until 1993. Lastly, the property is associated with Canadian landscape architect team Howard Dunington and Lorrie Dunington-Grubb. The couple designed and worked on various areas and landscapes on the property. The couple were pioneers and well respected in the Canadian landscape architect community. The property also has historical/associative value as it demonstrates or reflects their work and ideas.

The property has contextual value as it is important in defining, maintaining or supporting the character of an area. The large concrete, brick and stone walls that front the property are important in defining the character of the John Street area. The view from the entrance gate on John Street East showing the long central axis, lily pond and main residence also is important in defining the character of the area. It is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings. The property was originally part of the larger estate known as Randwood, which was owned by the Rand family from 1919 until 1980. It forms part of a larger significant cultural heritage landscape that includes all the grounds of the original estate. The property is visually and historically linked to the surrounding properties. The property is a local landmark.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The cultural heritage value or interest associated with the property is represented in following heritage attributes:

The property:

- The long central axis from John Street East;
- The Victorian wooden gazebo;
- The metal entrance gate framed with red brick pillars;
- The surviving elements of the Dunington-Grubb landscape including the formal stone path, sunken lily pond with sculpture, arched stone bridges; and
- The concrete and stone wall which extends along John Street East.

Main residence:

- The three-storey brick building with Second Empire, Italianate and Neo-classical features with its form, scale, and massing; and
- The mansard roof and enclosed brick tower.

200 JOHN STREET

Description of Property

The property is located on John Street East and found behind 176 John Street East. There are two entrances to the property. The main entrance is accessed from a long gravel driveway located on John Street East and the secondary entrance is a pedestrian entrance located at the rear of the property and accessed from the old rail line which is now part of Heritage Trail. Both entrances are marked with large red brick pillars; however, the one on John Street is believed to have been built at a later date. There are multiple built structures associated with the property which include the carriage house (aka the garage), the guest house, remnants of a greenhouse, the teahouse and pool, the pool pavilion, a wooden gazebo (Whistle stop), and the concreted and stone wall. There are many mature trees on the property.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property known as 200 John Street East has cultural heritage value or interest for its design and physical values, its historical/associate values, and its contextual values.

The property known as 200 John Street East has design and physical value because of its tea house and pool pavilion (c. 1928) which are a unique example of a design by Howard and Lorrie Dunington-Grubb. The pool is an early example of its kind, and may have been the first pool in Niagara-on-the-Lake. The extant wood gazebo (Whistle stop) is a unique and rare surviving example of a Whistle stop station used privately. The brick and stone wall found at the entrance of John Street East and at the rear of the property is a rare local example of a large wall which delineated an original estate boundary.

The property has historical/associative values due to its direct association with Hon. Peter Russel and William Dickson who were early owners of the property. It also has direct associations with the Rand family, who were a prominent family in Niagara-on-the-Lake. George Rand I purchased the property in 1910 and built the carriage house c. 1919, and commissioned the tea house and pool c. 1928. The tea house and pool have direct association with Howard and Lorrie Dunington-Grubb, who are well known and respected Canadian landscape architects. The property is most associated with Calvin Rand, son of George Rand II. Calvin Rand played a direct role in the establishment of The Shaw Festival, which has grown into an international attraction and a significant cultural feature of the community. Calvin Rand also founded the Niagara Institute in 1971. The property also reflects the ideas and work of Howard and Lorrie Dunington-Grubb. The couple designed and worked on various areas and landscapes on the property. The couple were pioneers and well respected in the Canadian landscape architect community.

The property has contextual value. The large concrete, brick and stone walls which surround part of the property is important in defining the character of the area. It is physically, functionally, visually or historically linked to its surroundings. The property was originally part of the larger estate known as Randwood, which was owned by the Rand family from 1919 until 1980. The property was used as part of a small-scale farming operation during the Rand ownership. It forms part of a larger significant cultural heritage landscape that includes all the grounds of the original estate. The property is visually and historically linked to the surrounding properties.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The cultural heritage value or interest of the property is represented in following heritage attributes:

The Property:

- The tea house and pool;

- The surviving elements of the Dunington-Grubb landscape;
- The one storey, rectangular bath pavilion;
- The extant wooden gazebo/whistle stop; and
- The wall and red pillars located at the rear of the property and on John Street East.

Carriage House:

- The two-storey carriage house with hipped roof;
- The asymmetrical façade with three large French style door openings on the main floor; and
- The original rectangular diamond patterned windows.

Description of Property

The property is located behind 176 John Street East and accessed from Charlotte Street where two large red brick pillars frame the gravel driveway. The property follows an irregular property line and a large brick, stone and concrete wall runs along the rear edge of the property. There are multiple built structures associated with the property including the main residence with additional wing, a detached outbuilding, two small sheds, and a wooden gazebo. There is a large in-ground pool at the rear of the main residence; a small purpose-built outbuilding is adjacent to the pool for pool equipment. There is a small pet cemetery enclosed in a white wooded fence located to the south of main residence. There are many mature trees associated with the property.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property known as 588 Charlotte Street has cultural heritage value or interest for its design and physical values, its historical/associate values, and its contextual values.

The property has design and physical value because of its concrete, brick and stone wall located along the rear of the property and Charlotte Street which is a rare local example of a large wall that delineates an original estate boundary. The property has historical/associative value due to its direct associations with Hon. Peter Russel and William Dickson who were early owners of the property, well as the Rand family, who were a prominent family in Niagara-on-the-Lake. George Rand I, purchased the property in 1910, and his son George Rand II built stables and outbuildings to support a small scale farming operation. The property is also associated with Henry Sheets Jr (Evelyn Rand's son) who owned and lived on the property throughout the mid-20th century. The property has contextual value because of its large concrete, brick and stone walls which are important in defining the character of the area, including the streetscape on Charlotte Street. The property is visually and historically linked to the surrounding properties. The property was original part of the larger estate known as Randwood, which was owned by the Rand family from 1919 until 1980. The property was used as part of a small-scale farming operation during the Rand ownership. It forms part of a larger significant cultural heritage landscape that includes all the grounds of the original estate.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The cultural heritage value or interest of the property is represented in following heritage attributes:

- The stone wall located along the rear of the property;
- The red brick pillars and stone wall located at the entrance on Charlotte Street;
- Main Dwelling and Sheds; and
- The one storey rectangular outbuilding with hipped roof and overhanging eaves and large French doors with ornate diamond shaped windows associated with the original estate.

ALL AND SINGULAR those lands and premises, situate, lying and being in the Town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, formerly in the County of Lincoln, now the Regional Municipality of Niagara, Province of Ontario, and being part of Parcel Block A-1 in the Register for Section M-100,

BEING Part 2 on a Reference Plan deposited in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of Niagara North as Plan 30R-5540.

SCHEDULE "B"

TO BY-LAW NO. 1971-88

STATEMENT OF THE REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION

The Randwood Milkhouse and Stables, c.1919
580 Charlotte Street
Part of Block A, Plan M-100, being Part 2 on Plan 30R-5540
Town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario

The Randwood milkhouse and stables, built in 1919 for George F. Rand I, are recommended for designation for architectural and historical reasons. Eclectic in style, they are constructed in the shingle style of the time and typify model farm buildings designed to accompany an estate in the early twentieth century. The two buildings constitute a significant architectural entity and notable aspects of the co-ordinated design include the low, rambling form creating a sequestered courtyard and a silo dressed as a "chateausque" tower with a conical crown accenting one corner. The rough-cast stucco walls, combined with decorative stone treatment and flared eaves on the long, sloping roofs bridge the taste of the Romanesque and Colonial revivals as do some of the major gable windows, the gable forms and small diamond paned windows, the latter both Queen Anne Revival and Tudor precedents.

The property on which the stables and milkhouse stand is historically significant because of its association with several notable owners who were prominent in the early development of Upper Canada and the Niagara area particularly the Honourable Peter Russell, Simcoe's successor as Administrator of Upper Canada; the Honourable William Dickson; and General Henry Lansing. The stables and milkhouse are significant because of their connection with the Rand family. Mrs. Evelyn Sheets, daughter of George F. Rand I, was a keen equestrian vitally interested in the stables. A son, George F. Rand II, raised prize cattle and the milkhouse was his interest. The Rand family, noted in the United States for its business acumen and political connections, especially with President F. D. Roosevelt, was one of the most influential of those American families who spent summers in Niagara-on-the-Lake early in this century and who repaired and renovated some of the Town's fine homes.

This designation is to include the entire exterior facade of both the stables and milkhouse.
